

Funky and the Wolves

Once upon a time there was a bunny named Funky.

He was a funny bunny.

He was very jumpy.

Erin: "Funky is in his house with his family."

He was a very little bunny, with a very big family.

Lorenzo: "This is Funky's house and that [on the left] is the door, and that [on the right] is the safe room where they can hide."

One day, Funky saw that the trees were dying.

He saw that there was a drought.

Tamara: "That's Funky and he's looking at the tree that's dying because there's no water, and that's all the water coming out of the tree. The ground is cracked because it's so dry."

Three wolves had no food and they wanted to eat Funky.

They were hiding behind a bush.

The wolves jumped out!

But Funky was small and he hid in a hole.

Olaf: "Those are the thousands of children of the wolves who are all coming to eat Funky and that's a bush [in the middle] and that's Funky with the hole."

The wolves had water, but they had no food. Funky had food, but he had no water.

The wolves sent all of their children to kill Funky.

One of the wolves ate Funky!

Emiliano: "That's the wolf eating Funky and Funky is bleeding."

But then Funky jumped up and down inside the wolf's stomach and the wolf vomited.

Funky came out alive!

But he was all gross and slimy from the vomit.

Oisin: "That's Funky all full of vomit."

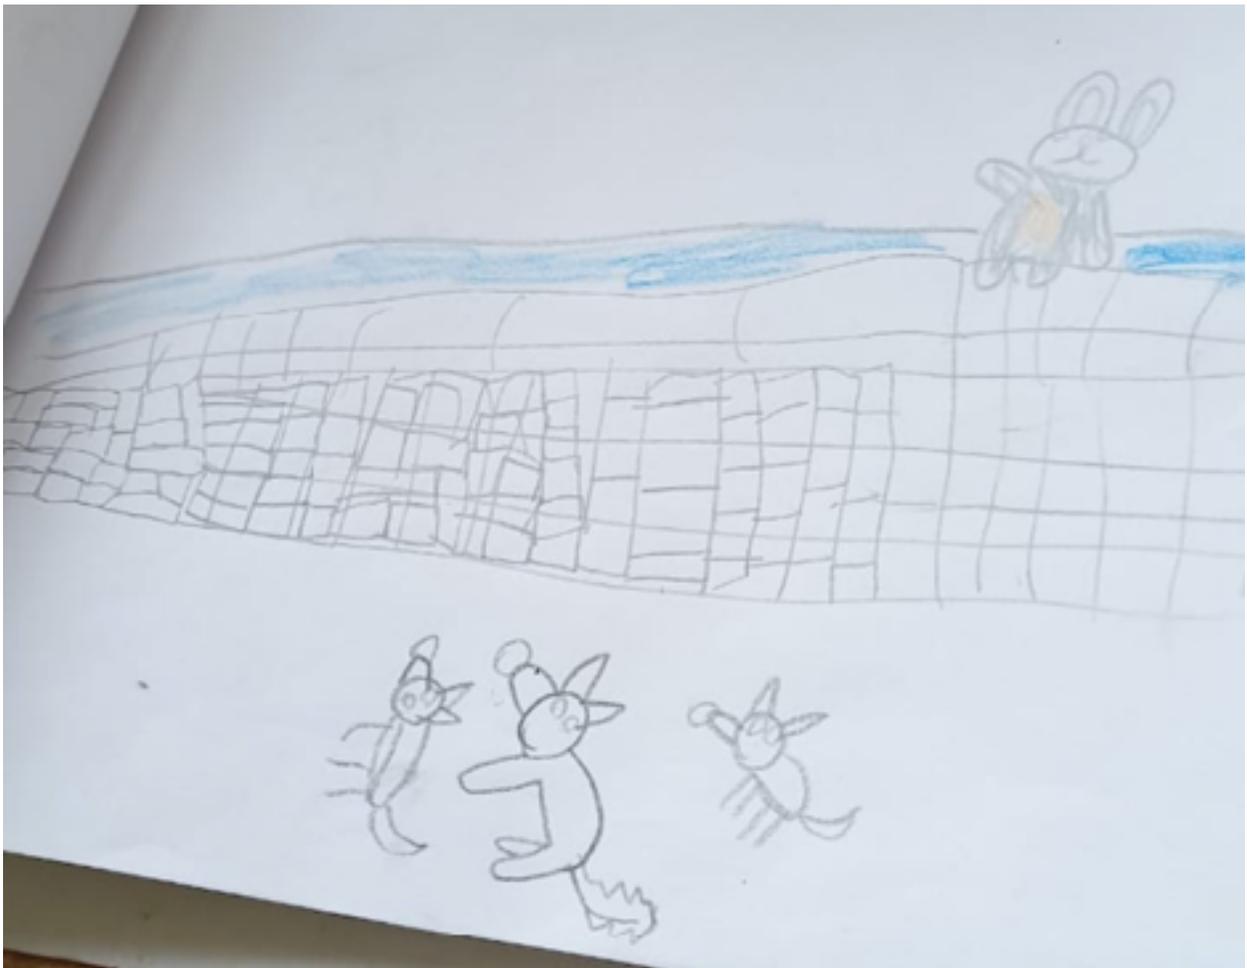

It turned out the wolves had a secret well where they were keeping all the water because they didn't want to share it.

Sirani: "That's the wolf with the well and a leaf."

The wolves were chasing Funky.

Funky jumped over the well, and all the wolves fell into it and drowned!

Oisin: "These are the wolves and that's the well, and that's Funky on the other side because he jumped over it."

When the wolves fell into the well, so much water splashed out that Funky was able to wash off all the slimy vomit stuff.

Erin: "This is Funky giving water to the plants, and he has a band-aid on his back where he got bitten by the wolves."

Then he used the water in the well to water all of the trees and plants, and they came back to life.

Then Funky had a heart attack and died!

Lorenzo: "This is Funky having a heart attack!"
